FACE HEAVY FINE

Corporations Have One More Day to File 1912 Reports for Excise Tax.

Between 600 and 700 corporations in the Second collection district of Vir-ginia have until the close of business to-morrow to file their reports for 1912 after the noon hour to-morrow.

The Federal laws provide penalties of from $1,000 to $10,000 for failure of from $1,000 to $10,000 for failure to file annual returns by March 1. The last day of grace expires at noon tomorrow, and corporations reporting after that date will face fines, to be imposed at the discretion of the com-corporations must pay annually a tax of 1 per cent per $1,000 on all net earn-amount are required annually of every corporation. Failure to file these by March 1, automatically raises the exclise tax to 11-2 per cent per $1,000 and at the same time renders the corporation liable to fine.

According to Deputy Collector J. R. Wade, excise taxes paid this year by banking corporations will exceed the amount received from the same source last year by about $15,000, as the result of the application of Commissioner Cabell's recent bank ruling. Under the construction given the Federal act by the commissioner, banks are no longer permitted to deduct from their annual net returns the amount of State taxes on bank stock paid by them for their stockholders.

The ruling went into effect for the first time last year and will figure in this year's returns. Before its application banking institutions universally made deductions for taxes paid on stock.
